As specified in tender documentations.

III.1.2. Main financing conditions and payment arrangements and/or reference to the relevant provisions governing them

As specified in tender documentations.

III.1.3. Legal form to be taken by the group of economic operators to whom the contract is to be awarded

The organisation of joint offers or offers from groupings is at the discretion of the tenderers, provided this does not infringe the rules of public procurement and fair competition. Such offers will be treated no differently from any other type of offer, each being assessed on its own merits in relation to the evaluation and award criteria contained in the tendering specifications.

Should an economic operator take part directly (sole tenderer or member of a grouping) or indirectly (subcontractor) in more than 1 tender, the contracting authority reserves the right to examine the tender to assess the possible existence of a conflict of interests and/or collusion between tenderers.

Should such a conflict and/or collusion be confirmed, the contracting authority reserves the right to exclude the tenderers involved from participating in this procedure.

It is mandatory that joint offers or offers from groupings include a letter of intent from each member of the grouping confirming their participation as described in the submitted bid in case of award of the contract.

This applies also to subcontractors with a budget share of 20 % or more.

However, a grouping of economic operators must identify a sole representative who will also be responsible for the receipt and processing of payments for members of the grouping, for administrative management of the service, and for coordination and safety.

Said responsible party must be duly authorised to submit the tender on behalf of the other members of the grouping.

All members of a grouping shall be jointly and severally liable vis-à-vis the contracting authority.
