II.1.4. Short description

NFI is altering the office and public premises in Oslo, and thus needs to procure fixtures and office furniture. The new premises will promote involvement and life, and facilitate various work assignments, interaction, and viewing platforms. Spacious floor area, timeless design, mobile furnishing solutions, and environmentally friendly materials are sustainable choices for future use of the premises. The tenderer that is awarded the assignment must contribute to this procurement taking care of the environment and sustainability by, amongst other things, offering new and second-hand products and product parts. The procurement must ensure that fixtures and furniture reflect our values, strategy, and visual profile. The contract that is signed will cover procurements of products that are to be delivered to Dronningensgate 16 in Oslo. The products must be assembled in the stated premises, and the tenderer will be responsible for removing all packaging.
