Section II: Object

II.1. Scope of the procurementII.1.1. Title

Dynamic Purchasing System for Laboratory Services

II.1.2. Main CPV code

71600000 Technical testing, analysis and consultancy services

II.1.3. Type of contract

Services

II.1.4. Short description

The Danish Safety Technology Authority ('Contracting Authority') has decided to establish a Dynamic Purchasing System for the provision of laboratory testing services for a wide range of products subject to technical safety requirements under EU and Danish law. The Dynamic Purchasing System is divided into 15 categories. Applicants may apply for as many categories as they wish, and may apply for additional categories during the term of the system. The system does not include pre-determined laboratory services. Hence, the content of the system is limited only by the 15 categories in which applicants can apply for admission and in which the Contracting Authority can purchase specific laboratory services covered by the specification of the categories. Thus, the system enables the Contracting Authority to purchase the services in accordance with any future developments in technical standards and legislation regarding product safety.

The procurement is related to a project and/or programme financed by European Union funds:
no

II.2.14. Additional information

Section III: Legal, economic, financial and technical information

III.1. Conditions for participation

III.1.2. Economic and financial standing

List and brief description of selection criteria:

The applicants must provide the following information (ESPD, section IV):

- equity for each of the last three (3) financial years; and
- total turnover for the last financial year.

If an applicant consists of a consortium or relies on the economic/financial standing of other entities (e.g. subcontractors or entities within the same group, including parent companies, affiliates or subsidiaries) each individual entity must enclose a separate ESPD.

Documentation

The Contracting Authority may at any time during the term of the Dynamic Purchasing System require that the participants present documentation of the fact that the participants fulfil the minimum criteria of economic and financial standing.

When requested by the Contracting Authority, participants must submit financial statements, e.g. approved annual Accounts (or extracts therefrom), or a statement of the relevant financial figures signed by a qualified accountant.

As documentation for the formation of the consortium, the Contracting Authority will require that the consortium provides a declaration or other documentation that proves the formation of a consortium with joint and several liability for the performance of the delivery agreements (if awarded), and specifies the identities of the members and the selection of a representative. If an applicant relies on the economic/financial standing of other entities (e.g. subcontractors or entities within the same group, including parent companies, affiliates or subsidiaries), the Contracting Authority will require that the supporting entity provides a declaration or other documentation which proves that the supporting entity is legally obligated to place the economic/financial standing at the disposal of the applicant and that the entity accepts joint and several liability for the performance of the delivery agreements (if awarded).

Please note that the abovementioned documentation should only be submitted at the Contracting Authority's request – and not as part of the request for participation in the dynamic purchasing system.

Minimum level(s) of standards possibly required:

III.1.3. Technical and professional ability

List and brief description of selection criteria:

The applicant must provide the following information (ESPD section IV):

- a list of the main deliveries of laboratory tests carried out within the last three (3) years from the date of the application;
- information on whether the applicant is accredited according to EN 17025 or similar (not applicable for category 3).

The list of the main deliveries should include a description of the delivered laboratory service, contract sum, the date of delivery, and contact details of the public or private recipient.

If an applicant consists of a consortium or relies on the technical/professional ability of other entities (e.g. subcontractors or entities within the same group, including parent companies, affiliates or subsidiaries) each individual entity must enclose a separate ESPD.

Documentation

The Contracting Authority may at any time during the term of the Dynamic Purchasing System require that the participants present documentation of the fact that the participants fulfil the minimum criteria of technical and professional ability.

When requested by the Contracting Authority, participants must submit a certificate or a statement signed by a certification body to document that the participant is accredited according to EN 17025 or similar (not applicable for category 3).

As documentation for the formation of a consortium, the Contracting Authority will require that the consortium provides a declaration or other documentation that proves the formation of a consortium with joint and several liability for the performance of the delivery agreements (if awarded), and specifies the identities of the members and the selection of a representative. If an applicant relies on the technical/professional ability of other entities (e.g. subcontractors or entities within the same group, including parent companies, affiliates or subsidiaries), the Contracting Authority will require that the supporting entity provides a declaration or other documentation which proves that the supporting entity is legally obligated to place the technical/professional ability at the disposal of the applicant.

Please note that the abovementioned documentation should only be submitted at the Contracting Authority's request – and not as part of the request for participation in the Dynamic Purchasing System.
