1) The contracting authority considers that this contract may be suitable for economic operators that are small or medium enterprises (SMEs). However, any selection of tenderers will be based solely on the criteria set out in the tender documents, and the contract will be awarded on the basis of the most economically advantageous tender.

2) The Hull College Group uses In-tend, an electronic tendering system, for its formal tenders. Economic operators must be registered with In-tend in order to participate in this tender. Registration and use of In-tend is free and unrestricted. <https://in-tendhost.co.uk/hull-college.aspx/Home>

3) If an Interested Party's documentation is accepted, the College cannot guarantee that the documents will remain confidential. The College may be obliged to disclose information provided by Interested Parties in response to this OJEU notice under the Freedom of Information Act 2000, all subordinate legislation made under this and the Environmental Information Regulations 2004 (the Freedom of Information Legislation). Interested Parties should be aware that the information they provide could be disclosed in response to a request under the Freedom of Information Legislation. The College will proceed on the basis of disclosure unless an appropriate exemption applies. Interested Parties should be aware that despite the availability of some exemptions, information may still be disclosed if the public interest in its disclosure outweighs the public interest in maintaining the exemption. No response to this ITT and any subsequent invitation to tender documentation should be covered by a general statement regarding its overall confidentiality. Instead Interested Parties should highlight information in their responses which they consider to be commercially sensitive or confidential in nature, and should state the precise reasons why they consider this. The College accepts no liability for loss as a result of any information disclosed in response to a request under the Freedom of Information Legislation. The College will use reasonable endeavours to consult with Interested Parties over the release of information which is highlighted by them as commercially sensitive or confidential.

4) Trading names/invoicing: Where invoices will be rendered by, or payments made to, an entity whose title differs in any respect from the title in which the documentation is submitted, full details must be provided in a letter accompanying the documents. Failure to provide these details may result in rejection of the Interested Party's application.

5) Interested Parties will be required to confirm acceptance of the College's Standard Terms and Conditions of Contract. Failure to accept the College's Terms and Conditions of Contract may result in Interested Parties being disqualified from taking any further part in this process.

6) The College reserves the right not to award a contract, or to award part of a contract.
