Tenderers should note that the Contracting Authority reserves the right to cancel this procurement at any stage and for any reason and not award a Framework Agreement. In accordance with law and the terms set out in the tender documents, the Contracting Authority reserves the right to change without notice any part of the proposed contract and the procedure for awarding the proposed contract and/or stop the process or cancel the procurement at any time. The Contracting Authority also reserves the right not to award a contract at any time without liability on its part.

Please also note that the Contracting Authority will be able to terminate the procurement process for any reason , including but not limited to: if there are not sufficient eligible tenders; [if the funding application(s) relevant to the proposed contract is/are rejected, or is/are approved but with insufficient funding to allow completion of the proposed contract] [If necessary, the Contracting Authority reserves a discretionary right to find alternative sources of funding]

Nothing in this Contract Notice, tender documents, contract documents, any other written communication to the potential Tenderer/Tenderers from the Contracting Authority or its representatives and any oral communication to the potential Tenderer/Tenderers from the Contracting Authority or its representatives , shall generate any contractual obligations or intention to create a contract prior to any signature of a final written contract.

If the Contracting Authority decides to enter into a Framework Agreement with the succesful tenderer(s) this does not mean that there is any guarantee of subsequent contracts being awarded. Any expenditure, work or effort undertaken prior to contract award is accordingly a matter solely for the commercial judgement of the tenderers.

Any order placed under this Framework Agreement will form a seperate contract under the scope of this framework between the service provider and the specific requesting other contracting body.

Miscellaneous.

The Contracting Authority is a public authority under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 9" the Act") and the Environmental Information Regulations 2004 ("EIR"). As part of its duty under the Act and the EIR, the Contracting Authority may disclose information to a person making a request unless the information is covered by an exemption under the Act or the EIR. The Contracting Authority is required to determine whether the public interest in maintaining the exemption outweighs the public interest in disclosing this information. Tenderers should state in their Tender responses whether or not they consider the information supplied should be exempted from disclosure to third parties under the Act or the EIR and should provide reasons for such views. These views will be taken into consideration by the Contracting Authority when deciding whether to disclose information. (Please see tender documents for further information)
