79980000 Subscription services

II.1.3.

Type of contract

Services

II.1.4. Short description

RDL intends to enter into agreement with a document delivery supplier enabling both internal and external users to order individual content items in those cases where the institution to which the user is affiliated does not already provides access. All institutions served will be set-up with their own sub-account in the document supplier's system.

The Supplier will have a dedicated RDL main contact, mandated to act on behalf of all institutions, both internal and external, using the service, in all areas regarding set-up, administration, support, and invoicing for all sub-accounts. RDL will offer the service to the more than 300 Danish educational, research and other institutions eligible for making use of RDL's license services.

RDL will also offer the service to a number of non-profit public institutions having research-based activities, e.g., Danish museums. In addition, the service may be offered to small and medium-sized Danish commercial organizations.

Main site or place of performance: København K

II.2.4. Description of the procurement

Royal Danish Library (RDL) acts as institutional library for Copenhagen University, Aarhus University, Roskilde University, the IT-university and other non-profit public institutions. RDL categorizes users affiliated with these institutions as internal users. Internal users can search as well as access content for which they are authorized through RDL's library system Alma /Primo.

RDL holds national mandates for providing license services to all Danish educational institutions from the Upper Secondary School level until universities, and other non-profit public institutions. RDL provides these external institutions with services relating to negotiation and administration of license agreements. The external institutions provide access for their own users to licensed content through their own library systems. RDL categorizes users affiliated with these institutions as external users.

RDL intends to enter into agreement with a document delivery supplier enabling both internal and external users to order individual content items in those cases where the institution to which the user is affiliated does not already provides access. All institutions served will be set-up with their own sub-account in the document supplier's system. The Supplier will have a dedicated RDL main contact, mandated to act on behalf of all institutions, both internal and external, using the service, in all areas regarding set-up, administration, support, and invoicing for all sub-accounts.

RDL will offer the service to the more than 300 Danish educational, research and other institutions eligible for making use of RDL's license services. RDL will also offer the service to a number of non-profit public institutions having research-based activities, e.g., Danish museums. In addition, the service may be offered to small and medium-sized Danish commercial organizations.

VI.4.3. Review procedure

Precise information on deadline(s) for review procedures:

According to the Law on the Appeals Board for Procurement etc. (the law can be downloaded from www.retsinformation.dk), the following deadlines apply for filing a complaint:

Complaints about not having been selected must be submitted to the Appeals Board for tenders within 20 calendar days, cf. section 7 (3) of the Act. 1, from the day after sending a notification to the applicants concerned about who has been selected when the notification is accompanied by a reason for the decision in accordance with section 2 (2) of the Act. 1, no. 1, and section 171 (1) of the Procurement Act. 2nd.

In other situations, complaints about tenders, cf. 2, must be filed with the Appeals Board before:

1) 45 calendar days after the contracting authority has published a notice in the Official Journal of the European Union that the contracting entity has concluded a contract. The deadline is calculated from the day after the date on which the notice was published.

2) 30 calendar days from the day following the day on which the contracting entity has notified the tenderers concerned that a contract based on a framework agreement with the reopening of the competition or a dynamic purchasing system has been concluded if the notification has provided a reason for the decision.

3) 6 months after the contracting entity has concluded a framework agreement from the day following the day on which the contracting party has notified the applicants and tenderers concerned, cf. section 2 (2) of the Act. 2, and section 171 (2) of the Procurement Act. 4th

4) 20 calendar days from the day after the contracting authority has announced its decision, cf. 2nd

Not later than when a complaint is submitted to the Complaints Board for Tender, the complainant must notify the contracting party in writing that the complaint is lodged with the Complaints Board for Tender and whether the complaint has been lodged during the standstill period, cf. section 6 (2) of the Act. 4.

In cases where the complaint is not filed during the standstill period, the complainant must also indicate whether the suspensive effect of the complaint is sought, cf. section 12 (2) of the Act. First.

The Complaints Board for the tender's e-mail address is given in point VI.4.1).
