NHS Surrey Downs Clinical Commissioning Group (CCG) provides healthcare to over 305 000 residents of its three localities of Epsom, East Elmbridge and Dorking. The CCG is seeking to procure a range of adult community healthcare services through one contract to deliver integrated care to its residents to achieve the best outcomes possible. The CCG has a clear vision for the development of comprehensive health and care provision for our residents. Our aspiration is to achieve locality-based models of care across the CCG, supported by a range of specialised services. Central to our vision is the development of excellent integrated adult community services, working in collaboration with primary care to provide a holistic health and care response, genuinely tailored to the needs of the individual.
