II.2.4. Description of the procurement

The Council directly provides a diverse range of services to the community and temporary agency workers represent an important component of the Council's workforce resource enabling it to flex in-line with peaks and troughs of overall workloads. It is essential that an appropriate level of quality personnel at a competitive cost base is achieved.

A service provider is required by Fylde Council for the supply of temporary agency workers. As part of this contract the Council will measure the service provider performance against the contract specification. The contract specification will clearly set KPI's for the service provider; require the demonstration of value for money and continuous improvement in performance throughout the contract. The Council shall have the option to extend or change the types of service as required by legislation, guidance or Council policy. These extensions will be subject to authorisation and successful operation of the existing service.
