II.1.4. Short description

Maidstone and Tunbridge Wells NHS Trust (MTW) are seeking tenders from suitably experienced supplier who can provide OSCE ready international nurses in accordance with the service specification and other associated documentation.

The development of a direct award framework will enable NHS organisations to access the single appointed supplier for the provision of OSCE ready international nurses. This is seen as a valuable resource for NHS Trust's within the United Kingdom and represents an exciting step change in the provision of Nurses into the NHS.

The contract will run for 48 months, unless terminated in accordance with the terms and conditions.

Expressions of interest will only be accepted via the Trust procurement portal. MTW is undertaking this procurement activity under the competitive procedure with negotiation procedure and will subsequently award a direct access framework that is accessible by all NHS Trust's within the United Kingdom.
