Education and training services. Training services. Specialist training services. Technical training services. Training and simulation in security equipment. The Department for Transport is looking for experienced DfT certified aviation security trainers and their respective organisations, or trainers and their organisations in the process of being certified, to plan, deliver and evaluate a variety of aviation security training courses overseas. Our initial estimate is for the delivery of around 28 training courses of differing types in the first year of the 2 year period of the contract, throughout Asia, Africa, the Middle East, and on rare occasions in the UK. Training suppliers will be expected to deliver the training courses in a variety of environments (some of which may be challenging), mostly within training facilities (with very basic facilities) but also within working airport environments giving practical advice and mentoring.

Official name: DFT

Postal address: Group Procurement Division, Zone 6, D Floor, Ashdown House

Town: Hastings

Postal code: TN37 7GA

Country: United Kingdom

Telephone: +44 2079448422

VI.3.2. Review procedure

Precise information on deadline(s) for review procedures: The Department for Transport will incorporate a minimum 10 calendar day standstill period at the point information on the award of the contract is communicated to tenderers. This period allows unsuccessful tenderers to seek further debriefing from the contracting authority before the contract is entered into. Applicants have 2 working days from the notification of the award decision to request additional debriefing and that information has to be provided a minimum of 3 working days before the expiry of the standstill period. In the first instance such additional information should be required from the address provided in part 1.1. Following that if the parties still cannot resolve the matter then it should be escalated to the Deputy Director of Procurement, Great Minster House, 76 Marsham Street, London SW1P 4DR. If an appeal regarding the award of a contract has not been successfully resolved the Public Contracts Regulations 2006 (SI 2006 No 5) provide for aggrieved parties who have been harmed or are at risk of harm by a breach of the rules to take action in the High Court (England, Wales and Northern Ireland).
