The Association is looking to appoint a framework of suppliers with a depot located within the County of Pembrokeshire for the supply of impressed van stocks for the Direct Labour Services team (DLS) where stock will be required to be replenished on a daily basis, and also for the same day collection of stock items as standard on the enclosed core list/pricing schedule and other non-core items which may be required on an ad-hoc basis.

Delivery of boilers will be required on a next day delivery basis.

Mobile Working.

As part of its ICT Strategy the Pembrokeshire Housing Group is implementing a mobile working and data collection system for its repairs service during 2016. The system will include modules for requisition, purchase orders, payments, GRN's, etc. and will require interface with third party supply merchants for paperless procurement.

— Merchants will need the IT infrastructure to quickly process on-site van stock replenishment orders for the Direct Labour Services team (DLS);

— It is intended that our IT systems will be interfaced with Barclaycard so accurate data input at our supplier's branches to a given format is essential (we may seek to apply an alternative method of data collection using an universal EDI interface directly with our suppliers);

— Merchants will need to provide tradesmen specific impressed / consignment van stocks. Card Acceptance and Levels of capability.

Pembrokeshire Housing Group use a Visa Purchasing Card to pay for goods which is provided by Barclaycard and is a charge card issued through the VISA card scheme. Suppliers must be able to process card payments for all goods supplied to Level 3 capability.
