EMPACT as part of Greater East Midlands Commissioning Support Unit (GEM CSU), on behalf of participating *NHS East Midlands and Yorkshire and Humber, Clinical Commissioning Groups (CCG's) are seeking expressions of interest (via PQQ) from suitably qualified and experienced providers for the provision of Inpatient Rehabilitation Services for Mental Health and Learning Disabilities (including Autism and Personality Disorder specialist inpatient rehabilitation).

These services are termed 'locked and unlocked' The difference in 'locked and unlocked' is defined within the environmental design, whereby patients who do not require a locked environment require less supervision and continue to receive therapies available to patients who reside within a locked environment.

The aim of these services through rehabilitation is to demonstrate improvements in symptoms, social inclusion and development of independent living skills. The service is expected to move patients towards independent community living (with support packages) or community residential or nursing provision.

A Bidder event will be held on Thursday 21.3.2013. Providers who wish to attend this event should use the messaging facility on the East Midlands Procurement eTendering portal to reserve places by 5:00pm Monday 18.3.2013 no later.
