II.1.4. Short description

The contest is for joinery and carpentry services for various exhibitions. An important part of the National Library of Norway's activity is to highlight and communicate the material in the collection in a manner that captures the interest of the public. Exhibitions are an important part of the National Library of Norway's means of spreading culture. Every year the National Library of Norway makes 1-3 major temporary exhibitions and 2-4 smaller exhibitions/material presentations in our premises in Solli plass in Oslo. The major exhibitions can have a construction period of up to six weeks. The exhibitions require reliable and secure access to skilled joinery and carpentry installation services.
