Candidates should note that a detailed finance check will be carried out by the Director of Finance and Resources, Strathclyde Police, or his authorised representative, to validate the Candidate's financial status. The Authority may seek independent financial advice to assist with the validation of the information declared by Candidates.

Tenderers are asked to note draft legislation (The Police and Fire Reform (Scotland) Bill) is currently before the Scottish Parliament that is intended to create a Police Service of Scotland and a single Scottish Police Authority which will replace the current 8 Police Forces and Authorities and the Scottish Police Services Authority. The current timescale for the establishment of the new Force and Authority is 1.4.2013. As currently drafted the legislation anticipates that any rights or obligations which an existing Police Authority has or may have under a contractual arrangement or other agreement will transfer to the Scottish Police Authority. Notwithstanding any statutory transfer order, there will be reserved the right (i) to the Contracting Authority in the case of any Framework Agreement awarded and (ii) to a Purchaser in the case of any contract awarded pursuant to such Framework Agreement to assign or novate their respective interests in such Framework Agreement and Contract to a new Scottish Police Authority.

Electronic copies (e-mail, disc, etc) of the Framework ITT documentation will not be available. Tenderers should note that scaled drawings of the mobile police stations including a full explanation of the features offered and their layout is to be submitted as part of the Tender Submission.

For the avoidance of doubt, the date stated at IV.3.4 is the time-limit for receipt of tenders. (SC Ref:222090).

VI.4. Procedures for review

VI.4.2. Review procedure

Precise information on deadline(s) for review procedures: The Contracting Authority will issue to all tenderers by electronic means a formal award decision notification. The notification will give reasons for the award decision and provide details of the standstill period during which period the Contracting Authority will refrain from awarding any framework agreement, which period shall not be less than 10 clear days from the date of the issue of the notification. If proceedings are served on the Contracting Authority in relation to a framework agreement that has not yet been entered into, the procurement process will be automatically suspended. The Public Contracts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended) provide for aggrieved parties to take action in the Sheriff Court or Court of Session. Any proceedings brought under the Regulations (other than proceedings seeking an ineffectiveness order) must be brought within three months of the date on which the unsuccessful party knew, or ought to have known, of the alleged infringement of the public procurement rules. Any proceedings seeking an ineffectiveness order must be brought within thirty days of the relevant date under Regulation 47 (9) of the Public Contracts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended), or, if neither of the circumstances in Regulation 47 (9) apply, within six months of the date the framework agreement was entered into.
