II.1.4. Short description

Staffordshire's County Council and Clinical Commissioning Groups have a shared vision for the development of emotional health and wellbeing services for children and young people in Staffordshire. This is based on the principles of Thrive and gives emphasis to a preventative, early intervention approach. The vision is ambitious and aims to deliver an accessible and responsive service to the children and young people of our county.

Staffordshire covers a large geographical area and is divided into the eight (8) districts of Cannock Chase, East Staffordshire, Lichfield, Newcastle-under-Lyme, South Staffordshire, Stafford, Staffordshire Moorlands and Tamworth.

II.1.5. Estimated total value

Value excluding VAT: 5 200 000,00 GBP

II.2.3. Place of performance

NUTS code: UKG24 Staffordshire CC

Main site or place of performance: Staffordshire.

II.2.4. Description of the procurement

Service aims are:

- to promote positive emotional health and wellbeing, whilst offering a self-help and face to face support system to those who require it,
 - to enable children and young people to access services at a time and level they feel is appropriate for them,
 - build resilience in individuals, peer groups, family units and communities,
 - to be inclusive of the Looked After Children and Care Leaver cohort within Staffordshire,
 - reduce the prevalence of escalating emotional health and wellbeing issues for children and young people, through prevention and early intervention,
 - to work collaboratively with professionals, families and services utilising local/place-based arrangements to ensure a child centred approach to support is a reality, not an aspiration.
- The service will offer a flexible approach to meeting the needs of Children and Young People (CYP) aged 5-18, who have mild to moderate mental health needs. The offer will be one that is made up of following:
- preventative work:
 - low level information, advice and guidance,
 - peer support,
 - raising awareness of emotional health and wellbeing issues within communities, families, peer groups and with individuals,
 - tackling the stigma around mental and emotional health,
 - promotion of new, future emotional health and wellbeing services whilst utilising existing statutory services that support CYP and families in a variety of ways,
 - effective work with stakeholders to ensure cohesive services,
 - self-help via digital support:
 - support for young people,
 - self-referral service,
 - online counselling,
 - direct support:
 - therapeutic offer,
 - wide range of therapies,
 - group support,
 - 1:1 support,

— peer support.

The tender will be procured via a competitive dialogue tender process. This will be a three-stage process:

- 1) Submission of selection questionnaire;
- 2) Invitation to participate in dialogue;
- 3) Invitation to submit final bid — invitation to tender.
