Title: PEACEPLUS Community Safety, Engagement, Wellbeing and Signposting Project for Young People

Description: A PEACEPLUS Community Safety, Engagement, Wellbeing and Signposting Project for young people. The successful tenderer would be required to deliver a cross community engagement and signposting programme with a focus on the rural border area. The project would aim to engage 200 young people with key stakeholders and signpost young people to services relevant to their needs. The project should deliver one to one support for young people through specialised outreach and activities with a view to building improved trust and confidence in policing in County Louth. The means of delivering this would be through detached work and outreach to the targeted rural border areas. The project is supported by PEACEPLUS, a programme managed by the Special EU Programmes Body (SEUPB).
