The community of suppliers can, if necessary, rely on other entities to fulfil the qualification requirements, see the point on support from other companies to fulfil the qualification requirements. The contracting authority requires that the tenderer who fulfils the requirements for relevant experience shall carry out the services or the building and construction work that requires such qualifications.

Criterion: Enrolment in a relevant professional register

Description of selection criterion: Particularly on newly established tenderers A tenderer who is newly established and cannot present all the required documentation must be particularly careful to document and substantiate that they still have the prerequisites required to fulfil the contract. It is particularly important that such tenderers can document a sufficiently large workforce for the execution of the contract, including technical and professional qualifications. Newly established tenderers emphasise that it is the tenderer's ability as such to carry out the contract that is assessed, not individual persons' competence in isolation. If a newly established tenderer has experience from contracts, the most relevant contracts from which the tenderer has experience must be completed in accordance with the documentation requirements regarding relevant experience. This is even if the contracts are of such a nature that they do not fulfil the specified requirements. Missing or inadequate documentation in one or more of the requirements can result in the tenderer being rejected. Insufficient or incorrect completed response form can also lead to rejection. Tenderers who have established themselves within a new discipline can also be seen as newly established.

5.1.10. Award criteria

Criterion:

Type: Price

Name: Lowest price

Description: The contracting authority will choose tenders on the basis of the lowest price.

Category of award weight criterion: Weight (percentage, exact)

Award criterion number: 100

Criterion:

Type: Quality

Name: Reasons for the use of climate and environmental requirements in the requirement specifications.

Description: Operational contracts, electrical installations use the lowest price as the award criterium. The climate and environment are safeguarded through the requirements in the tender documentation. The reason for the procurement regulations is that the requirement gives a better effect than the award criteria. This justification is given for the electro operation contracts: The procurement is for the operation and maintenance of electrical installations on and along the national road. The main objective of the contract is to operate and safeguard the existing electrical installations on and along the national road. There will be few or no interventions with climate and environmental impact. According to the Public Procurement Regulations (FOA) § 7-9 (4), award criteria in accordance with PPR § 7-9 (2) and (3) can be replaced with climate and environmental requirements if it is clear that this provides a better climate and environmental effect. The climate and environmental impact of this procurement is mainly related to: i) Transport of personnel ii) Emissions from materials iii) Handling waste In this procurement, work hours for personnel make up the largest resource effort, and transport of personnel will give the largest climate footprint. Personnel vehicles are mainly light vehicles under 3.5 tons. At least 90% of all such transport shall be carried out by zero emission vehicles (electric or hydrogen vehicles). This is taken care of in chapter C2 point 34 Vehicle requirements. Petrol or diesel powered vehicles used in the contract work require emissions level. Such vehicles shall as a minimum fulfil the Euro VI/6 or Stage IV standards. This is taken care of in chapter C3 point 27.3 Outer environment. Materials make up a large part of the procurement. The total extent of the material deliveries is unknown at the time of the competition notice and is therefore not fully estimated in advance. The materials will mainly occur according to a need arisen and the contracting authority has full control over the procurement. The Contracting Authority emphasises the materials' climate and environmental profile with the concrete procurements. Materials that promote reuse are required, however. This is taken care of in chapter C2 point 30.4 Recycling and recycling. Handling waste is a minor part of the execution of the contract. There are requirements as to how waste shall be handled for recycling and recycling. This is taken care of in chapter C2 point 30.5 Waste Management. The tenderer is required to be certified in accordance with ISO 14001 Environmental Management System Requirements. This contributes to the tenderer having a systematic approach to environmental management in connection with the execution of the contract work. Tenderers will, thus, contribute to protecting the environment by preventing or curbing unfortunate environmental impact, upholding environmental obligations, improving the environmental performance, implementing environmental alternatives and communicating environmental information. By setting minimum requirements in the contract, we are largely ensured a climate and environmental effect and we therefore consider the climate and environmental gains in this procurement to be better safeguarded through such a requirement position rather than the use of climate and environment as the award criteria.
