The Bright Futures Educational Trust was formed in 2011 and is a multi-academy Trust with seven schools currently within the North West. The core aim is to provide a world class education that guarantees choices for every child. BFET will continue to expand and take on more schools within the North West of England.

BFET's lead sponsor is Altrincham Grammar School for Girls and the Chief Executive Officer is Dame Dana Ross-Wawrzynski, D.B.E., and the Executive Head Teacher of Altrincham Grammar School for Girls, which was one of the first schools to be awarded Teaching School status.

BFET, through the new Connell Sixth Form College and partnerships with existing schools in east Manchester and Blackpool, is raising aspirations and delivering progression through education of local young people, working to make sure that no child is left behind.

BFET has a Teaching School with a wider alliance of more than forty schools and offers a wide variety of quality training, initial teacher training and research opportunities, working in strong partnerships including local universities.

The purpose of this tender is to invite prospective partners to submit a proposal to supply catering services to BFET.

The vision is to create a world class education to enable every young person to reach their full potential, and in particular their full academic potential.
