This application process will be controlled using The Crown Estate's eTendering Portal (<https://etendering.thecrownestate.co.uk/web/login.shtml>). In order to express interest in the application process, log on to the eTendering Portal, register to participate in the project and submit tenders. If you have not done so in the past interested parties must register to use The Crown Estate's eTendering Portal. A supplier guide to using the eTendering Portal is available via the help section on the eTendering portal. Interested parties should note that all questions relating to the interpretation of any part of this tender must be submitted through the eTendering Portal messaging service.

For the avoidance of doubt submission of a request to participate is via the eTendering Portal by no later than the date and time identified in Section IV.3.3.

The Crown Estate is not subject to public procurement regulation and is not, therefore, required to advertise its requirements in the Official Journal of the EU or indeed to comply with any other obligation relating to public procurement which may emanate from the relevant public procurement EU directives. The publication of this, or any other notice, is voluntary and does not set a precedent. In publicising this or any other notice, The Crown Estate is not required and does not undertake to comply with any of the legal authorities referred to above and therefore accepts no liability in that respect. Compliance by candidates with all relevant legislation is required, both in the contract award procedure and during the term of any resulting contract. The publication of this notice in no way obliges The Crown Estate to commence any competitive tender process. The Crown Estate is not and shall not be liable for any costs incurred by those expressing an interest, or negotiating, or tendering for this contract. The information contained in this notice, including the list of CPV codes, is neither exhaustive nor binding, and may be amended at the time of issue of any further notice or notices or at any other time at the discretion of The Crown Estate. Tenders and all supporting documentation must be priced in pounds sterling. The dates shown in sections IV.3.4 and IV.3.5 for issue of the Invitation to Tender are indicative only and subject to change at the discretion of The Crown Estate. The Crown Estate reserves the right not to award a contract, to make whatever changes it sees fit to the structure and timing of the procurement process and to cancel the process in its entirety at any stage.
