The tendering company uses the tender platform tender24 (<https://www.tender24.de>) for this tender procedure. The use of tender24 is available to the applicants or bidders free of charge. Tender applications are to submit only via the tender tool www.tender24.de by providing answers to the asked questions (suitability criteria) in the tender portal and uploading documents there, if required.

Tender applications submitted via emails in MS Outlook will be excluded from the tender. The whole communication between the bidder and the tendering company regarding the tender and the tender documents runs explicitly via the tender 24.

Bidders are recommended to check the operability of the tender 24 at an early stage and submit their application to this tender not at the submission deadline day, so that there is still some reaction time, should there come up some technical problems with the tender portal. In case of technical problems with the tender tool, support is available to the bidders at <https://www.tender24.de/contact>.

Phone: +49 7 11.6 66 01-476.

E-Mail: bieter@staatsanzeiger.de.

Bidders are requested to process and upload also documents attached in this tender notice (NDA, LTMG, EU Sanctions, etc.). See all documents attached.
