The key aims and objectives identified by the Commissioners will include:

- Develop a sustainable model of engagement that provides value for money, is fully inclusive and provides a wide range of opportunities for service receiver and carer involvement in the commissioning process and improvements in service delivery;
- Develop an improved mechanism for the views of patients to be fed into service delivery, development and review;
- Ensure a consistent approach to engagement across geographical localities and across all communities;
- Maximise opportunities for engagement of seldom heard voices and ensure inclusivity of Regards characteristics. Engagement must also cover a wide range of mental health issues;
- Actively promote opportunities for engagement and involvement in localities and across all communities using a variety of means and methods, reaching groups both with and without a primary focus of mental health.
