II.1.4. Short description

In order to be able to counter and prevent racism and discrimination, there is a need for knowledge on its occurrences and experiences. Several municipalities have action plans for strategies for preventing racism and discrimination, and we would like several municipalities to work on prevention locally.

One or more methods to map experienced racism and discrimination will support the municipalities' work and stimulate strengthened efforts in the field. This is the objective of the assignment. The assignment will contribute to high levels of participation in social life for immigrants and their descendants. The goal is a society without racism and discrimination, which is characterised by trust, tolerance, and equality between people with and without an immigrant background.
