III.2. Conditions for participation

III.2.1. Suitability to pursue the professional activity, including requirements relating to enrolment on professional or trade registers

List and brief description of conditions: Candidates shall be excluded from participation in a procurement procedure if:

(a) they are bankrupt or being wound up, are having their affairs administered by the courts, have entered into an arrangement with creditors, have suspended business activities, are the subject of proceedings concerning those matters, or are in any analogous situation arising from a similar procedure provided for in national legislation or regulations;

(b) they have been convicted of an offence concerning their professional conduct by a judgment which has the force of 'res judicata';

(c) they have been guilty of grave professional misconduct proven by any means which the contracting authority can justify including by decisions of the European Investment Bank and international organisations;

(d) they have not fulfilled obligations relating to the payment of social security contributions or the payment of taxes in accordance with the legal provisions of the country in which they are established or with those of the country of the contracting authority or those of the country where the contract is to be performed;

(e) they have been the subject of a judgment which has the force of 'res judicata' for fraud, corruption, involvement in a criminal organisation or any other illegal activity detrimental to the Union's financial interests;

(f) they are currently subject to an administrative penalty for being guilty of misrepresentation in supplying the information required by the contracting authority as a condition of participation in a procurement procedure or failing to supply this information, or having been declared to be in serious breach of its obligations under contracts covered by the Union's budget. Points (a) to (d) of the first subparagraph shall not apply in the case of purchase of supplies on particularly advantageous terms from either a supplier which is definitively winding up its business activities, or from the receivers or liquidators of a bankruptcy, through an arrangement with creditors, or through a similar procedure under national law.

Candidates must certify that they are not in one of the situations listed above by completing and signing the form in Annex V, 'Certification with respect to the exclusion criteria'. The tenderer to whom the contract is to be awarded must also provide evidence that they are not in any of the situations described in points (a), (b), (d) and (e) above within the time limit stipulated by the contracting authority. This evidence must be in one of the forms described below:

Evidence:

a) the contracting authority shall accept as satisfactory evidence that the candidate or tenderer to whom the contract is to be awarded is not in one of the situations described in point (a), (b) or (e) above, a recent extract from the judicial record or, failing that, an equivalent document recently issued by a judicial or administrative authority in the country of origin or provenance showing that those requirements are satisfied. Where the tenderer is a legal person and the national legislation of the country in which the tenderer is established does not allow the provision of such documents for legal persons, the documents should be provided for natural persons, such as the company directors or any person with powers of representation, decision-making or control in relation to the tenderer;

b) the contracting authority shall accept, as satisfactory evidence that the candidate is not in the situation described in point (d) above, recent certificates or letters issued by the competent authorities of the State concerned. These documents must provide evidence covering all taxes and social security contributions for which the candidate is liable, including for example, VAT, income tax (natural persons only), company tax (legal persons only) and social security contributions.

For any of the situations (a), (b), (d) or (e), where any document described in the 2 paragraphs above is not issued in the country concerned, it may be replaced by a sworn or, failing that, a solemn statement made by the interested party before a judicial or administrative authority, a notary or a qualified professional body in his country of origin or provenance;

c) depending on the national legislation of the country in which the candidate is established, the documents referred to above shall relate to legal persons and/or natural persons including, where considered necessary by the contracting authority, company directors or any person with powers of representation, decision-making or control in relation to the candidate.

Contracts may not be awarded to candidates who, during the procurement procedure:

(a) are subject to a conflict of interest;

(b) are guilty of misrepresentation in supplying the information required by the contracting authority as a condition of participation in the contract procedure or fail to supply this information;

(c) find themselves in one of the situations of exclusion, referred to above, for this procurement procedure.

Candidates must certify that they are not in the situation in point (a) by completing and signing the form in Annex V, 'Certification with respect to the exclusion criteria'.

VI.3. Additional information

(1) The attention of interested parties is drawn to the aim of this notice, i.e. to select candidates who will receive the specifications and be invited to tender. The procedure consists of 2 distinct phases. In the first phase, requests to participate sent in response to this notice will be appraised by a selection committee on the basis of the criteria indicated in Section III.2 'Conditions for participation' of this notice. The criteria are outlined in the document entitled 'Selection criteria' on the website indicated in Section I.1.

In phase 2, all applicants who meet the minimum levels of standards indicated will be shortlisted and subsequently invited to submit a tender. Applicants who are not shortlisted after phase 1 will be informed of the reasons for their elimination from the procedure.

(2) NB: interested parties are requested to strictly observe the conditions stated in point III.2 when submitting their request to participate. In addition, interested parties must:

— send their application before the deadline in point IV.3.4. Applications sent after the deadline in point IV.3.4 will be automatically rejected, — enclose all the documents and information requested in points III.2.1 to III.2.3.

Applications should be sent in triplicate and marked with the reference number of the tender (see point IV.3.1).

Candidates may elect to send their requests to participate either by:

(a) registered post to the official address in point I.1 of this notice. In this case, the date of dispatch will be evidenced by the postmark; or

(b) delivery (in person or by any party representing the candidate, or by courier) to the address indicated in Section I.1. This department is open from 9:30 until 16:30, Monday to Thursday, and from 9:30 until 15:30 on Fridays. It is closed on weekends and on European Commission holidays. For deliveries by courier, the valid date of dispatch will be the date on the courier's delivery note. For deliveries made in person or by any party representing the candidate, delivery will, in this case, be confirmed by a receipt dated and signed by an official of the department indicated in Section I.1. NB: the offices will be closed on 1, 14, 15 and 25 of May. No applications will be received on these dates.

(3) Interested parties are requested to refrain from seeking further information at this stage.

(4) It is likely that a visit to the Grange site will be arranged in order for shortlisted candidates to view the premises. However, no costs incurred by candidates in this regard can be reimbursed by the European Commission. A maximum of 3 representatives from any tenderer may participate in the site visit. Participation in a site visit although recommended is not obligatory.

(5) In line with Article 134.1(e) of the rules of application to the Financial Regulation, the European Commission reserves the right to negotiate with the eventual contractor(s) additional services and works not included in the project envisaged for the initial contract but which, through unforeseen circumstances, have become necessary for the performance of the services or works, where:

(a) such additional contracts cannot be technically or economically separated from the main contract without serious inconvenience for the contracting authority; or

(b) where such services or works, although separable from the performance of the original contract, are strictly necessary for its completion.

The aggregate value of additional contracts may not exceed 50 % of the amount of the initial contract.

NB: all information concerning this procedure has been published. In the unlikely event that any supplementary information may be required, it will be posted on: http://ec.europa.eu/dgs/health_food-safety/funding/call_sante_2015-f7-014_en.htm
