The tenderer will be responsible for preparing the analysis. The contracting authority will contribute with specific branch competence.

The contracting authority would like to have a good basis to assessing the quality of the tenders. The contracting authority therefore requests that descriptions are made for 2 analyses of different quality, of which 1 is a description of an analysis that is sufficient in accordance with DFØ's guidelines. The other description must be an analysis that the tenderer believes is of optimum quality. The contracting authority will use these 2 descriptions to assess the quality of the tenders.
