The objective of the agreement is to provide the Ministry a better basis for further follow-up of Investinor and the application of business policy measures aimed at access to capital for companies in their early phase. The evaluation shall provide a holistic assessment of the company's various mandates and roles, individually and as a whole, including the measures aimed at different phases and the collaboration with, and interface to, other participants in the public policy measure system.

There is a principal question whether Investinor's activities are suitable for improving the access to the market's early-stage capital for Norwegian companies. In 2019, the Storting decided that the company should be given a new mandate for fund and matching investments and undertake the management responsibility for three investment schemes from Innovation Norway.

The objective of the agreement is to provide the Ministry a better basis for further follow-up of Investinor and the application of business policy measures aimed at access to capital for companies in their early phase. The evaluation shall provide a holistic assessment of the company's various mandates and roles, individually and as a whole, including the measures aimed at different phases and the collaboration with, and interface to, other participants in the public policy measure system.
