II.1.4. Short description

Halton Housing Trust (HHT) is a not for profit housing association, who own and manage over 6 700 homes in the Cheshire towns of Widnes and Runcorn. HHT sought bids to establish a framework of suppliers to supply IT hardware to HHT. Purchases made under the framework will mainly be for end user IT hardware and peripheral IT items which are expected to include, but not be limited to; tablets, laptops, mobile/smart phones, desktop computers, monitors, projectors, TVs, thin clients, mice, cables and keyboards. From time to time, HHT may also purchase any other IT hardware items under the framework that may be needed to meet the needs of the organisation (e.g. interactive audio visual equipment).

The outcome of the tender was a 4 year framework agreement, awarded to 7 suppliers.

II.2.3. Place of performance

NUTS code: UK United Kingdom

Main site or place of performance: Products will generally need to be delivered to HHT offices in the areas of Widnes and Runcorn, but deliveries may also be required wherever HHT has an operational requirement (UK mainland only).

II.2.4. Description of the procurement

Whilst the framework will primarily be used for the purchase and delivery of IT hardware, auxiliary services associated with the provision of IT hardware may also be purchased under the framework. These services may include, but not be limited to: hardware installation, configuration, repairs and recycling. From time to time, HHT may also purchase operating system software and licenses from successful suppliers under the framework.

Purchases are expected to mainly be off a product catalogue, the first version of which bidders priced for as part of the tender. Products not contained within the catalogue may also be purchased under this framework.

The estimated value of 180 000 GBP is an estimate only and is for information only. No guarantees are given, nor are implied as to the value or quantity of business that will be placed with successful bidders.
