III.2. Conditions for participation

III.2.1. Suitability to pursue the professional activity, including requirements relating to enrolment on professional or trade registers

List and brief description of conditions: exclusion criteria:

* Article 106 of the Financial Regulation.

1. Tenderers will be disqualified from taking part in procurement procedures if:

(a) they are bankrupt or being wound up, if their affairs are being administered by the court or if they have entered into an arrangement with creditors, if they have suspended business activities, if they are the subject of proceedings of this nature or if they are in any analogous situation arising from a similar procedure under national laws or regulations;

(b) they themselves, or the persons with powers of representation, decision-making or control with regard to them have been convicted of an offence concerning their professional conduct by a judgment which has the force of 'res judicata', delivered by the appropriate body in a Member State;

(c) they have been guilty of grave professional misconduct proven by any means which the contracting authorities can justify;

(d) they have not fulfilled their obligations to pay social security contributions or taxes in accordance with the legal provisions of their country of residence or with those of the country of the contracting authority, or those of the country where the contract is to be carried out;

(e) they themselves, or the persons with powers of representation, decision-making or control with regard to them have been the subject of a judgment which has the force of 'res judicata' for fraud, corruption, involvement in a criminal organisation, money laundering or any other illegal activity, when said illegal activity is detrimental to the Union's financial interests;

(f) they are currently subject to an administrative penalty referred to in Article 109(1).

Points (b) and (e) do not apply where tenderers are able to prove that appropriate measures have been taken with regard to the persons with powers of representation, decision-making or control who are the subject of the judgments referred to in points (b) and (e).

* Article 107 of the Financial Regulation.

2. Tenderers will not be considered for contract award if, at the time of the procurement procedure for this contract, they:

(a) are in a situation where interests conflict;

(b) are guilty of misrepresentation in supplying the information required by the contracting authority in order to participate in the contract, or if they have not supplied such information;

(c) are in any of the situations giving grounds for exclusion from the procurement procedure for this contract referred to in paragraph 1, points (a) to (f) above.

Evaluation of exclusion criteria:

the tenderer shall provide the following proof with his tender:

— solemn declaration, duly signed and dated, declaring that he is not in any of the situations mentioned in Articles 106 and 107 of the Financial Regulation. The required solemn declaration model is attached to the letter of invitation to tender (Annex C to the invitation to tender).

Only the tenderer to whom the contract is to be awarded must submit the following means of proof within 14 calendar days of notification of provisional contract award and before contract signature:

- recent extract from the judicial record or, failing this, an equivalent document recently issued by a judicial or administrative body in the country of origin or provenance, showing that the tenderer to be awarded the contract is not in any of the situations mentioned in points (a), (b) or (e) of Article 106(1) of the Financial Regulation,
- recent certificate issued by the appropriate body in the country concerned as proof that the tenderer is not in the situation mentioned in point (d) of Article 106(1) of the Financial Regulation.

Where the documents or certificates indicated above are not issued in the country concerned, and for the other exclusion cases referred to in Article 106 of the Financial Regulation, they may be replaced by a statement under oath or, failing that, a solemn declaration made by the interested party before a judicial or administrative body, a notary or a qualified professional body in the country of origin or provenance (in accordance with Annex C to the invitation to tender).

The tenderer to whom the contract is to be awarded is exempt from having to provide the documentary evidence referred to in paragraph 1 if it has already been submitted as part of another European Parliament procurement procedure, and provided that the documents in question are less than 1 year old and still valid. In such a case, the tenderer must solemnly declare that the supporting documents have already been provided for a specified previous contract award procedure and that no change in his situation has occurred.

Proof of status:

tenderers must provide proof of their authorisation to produce the object covered by the contract in accordance with national law. Proof of status will be assessed on the basis of the following factors, for which documentary evidence must be provided:

- tenderers must be natural persons or legal entities (entry on the professional or trade register or statement under oath or certificate, membership of a specific organisation, express authorisation, entry on the VAT register).

Where applicable, in the case of a grouping of companies, documentary evidence of the grouping's formation and of the current contractual arrangements between its members. The legal entity's powers of representation must be proven by statutory acts and/or proceedings adopted in application of the status.

Proof of access to the contract:

access to the contract will be assessed on the basis of the following factor, for which documentary evidence must be provided:

- tenderers must state the name of the country in which they have their head office or are domiciled, enclosing the documents evidencing this under their national law.

All elements submitted by the tenderer must be backed up by official documents.
