II.1.5. Short description of the contract or purchase(s)

About the contracting authority:

Nordmøre Interkommunale Innkjøpssamarbeid (NII) was established in 2002 and is currently an inter-municipal procurement scheme consisting of the 11 Nordmøre municipalities as well as Fræna municipality in Romsdal. Averøy, Eide, Halså, Sunndal, Surnadal, Tingvoll, Aure, Gjemnes, Kristiansund, Rindal, Smøla and Fræna municipalities are participating in this tender contest.

Even if this is a joint contest, the final contract must be signed with each municipality.

The procurement's purpose:

NII shall enter into a framework agreement for the procurement of computer supplies, including toner and ink. The delivery shall cover the municipalities' requirements for toner and ink and it shall ensure that the municipalities have access to such products of the correct quality, price and delivery time in the contract period.

II.2. Scope of the procurement

II.2.1. Total quantity or scope

NII shall enter into a framework agreement for computer supplies. The delivery shall cover the municipalities' requirements for computer supplies and it shall ensure that the municipalities have access to such products of the correct quality, price and delivery time in the contract period.

Based on experience, annual procurements will be approx. 1 000 000 NOK. The contracting authority is not bound by the stated values, which are given only as an indication of the scope of the tender.

The expected volume in the price form is per annum per product, but the volume is only meant as an evaluation amount and it is not binding for the contracting authority nor does it give the chosen tenderer any rights. Due to technological developments, the products we require will vary somewhat from year to year.

Table I: Delivery addresses per municipality in NII:

Municipality Number of delivery places:

Aure 71,
Averøy 46,
Eide 33,
