II.1.4. Short description

Shule Bora is DFID Tanzania's new flagship programme to improve the quality of pre-primary and primary education for girls and boys in Tanzania. The desired outcome of the programme is improved quality, inclusiveness and safety of learning for boys and girls. Shule Bora will deliver these outcomes through three programmes. One of these programmes is for a managing agent, which we are procuring services for in this tender. The managing agent will be responsible for management, oversight and coordination of programme activities, support to the Government of Tanzania (GoT) to implement the payment for results (PforR) mechanism and support to the GoT to test, adapt and deliver interventions at scale, which will enable the achievement of PforR targets.
