Lot 1 — Support for young people dealing with stress:

The service will aim to deliver support to the young people with emotional health needs related to stress and anxiety below the threshold for Tier 2 CAMHS services across Richmond and Kingston. For young people who meet the threshold for Tier 2 support, they will be eligible for support from Achieving for Children's (AfC's) Emotional Health Service. At Tier 3, services will be provided by South West London and St Georges, Child and Adolescent Mental Health Services (CAMHs).

The objective will be to provide young people, across both boroughs, with ways of coping with stress to ensure a good level of emotional well-being. A further objective will be to ensure that the parents are engaged with the counselling and are aware of their own behaviour, particularly in relation to exam stress.

Lot 2 — Young people dealing with bereavement or significant loss:
