A tenderer participating alone who does rely on the capacity of other entities candidates shall ensure that DALO receives his own European Single Procurement Document together with a separate European Single Procurement Document with the relevant information for each of the entities that the tenderer relies on. Finally when groups of entities, including temporary joint ventures, participate in the tender procedure together, each of the participating entities must complete a separate European Single Procurement Document with the information required in Section II)-IV) Prior to decision on award of the contract documentation for the information stated in the European Single Procurement Document must be produced, cf. §§ 151 and 152 of the said Act. Further information and the applicable time limit is found in the tender documents. DALO further reserves the right to at any stage of the tender procedure to request a tenderer to submit documentation, if this is required to secure that the procedure is conducted correctly. In this situation DALO will set an appropriate time limit for submission of the documentation. DALO shall exclude a tenderer from participation in the tender procedure, if the tenderer is subject to 1 of the mandatory exclusion grounds in §§ 135 and 136 of the said Act. The tenderer shall submit information in this respect in the European Single Procurement Document's part III A, B and C. Special attention is drawn to the fact that certain voluntary exclusion grounds have been made mandatory in § 136 of the Act. Please refer to The Danish Competition and Consumer Authority's guidance note for correct completion of the European Single Procurement Document.

Submission of offers:

Tenderers are asked to submit offers via Merzell Sourcing Service.

Offers cannot be submitted by e-mail.

Non-compliance with formal requirements:

DALO reserves the right — but is not obliged — to use the remedies provided for in Section 159(5) of the the Danish Act on Public Procurement (Act No 1564 of 15.12.2015 — available at www.retsinformation.dk) if applications or offers do not fulfil the formalities of the tender documents.
