IV.1. DescriptionIV.1.1. Type of procedure

Award of a contract without prior publication of a call for competition in the Official Journal of the European Union in the cases listed below

- Extreme urgency brought about by events unforeseeable for the contracting authority and in accordance with the strict conditions stated in the directive

Explanation:

A situation of extreme urgency exists both in the UK and across the World, in the context of the spread of Covid-19. Hydroxychloroquine tablets, one of the drugs of choice worldwide for the treatment of Covid-19 is scarce in supply and the contracting authority having identified a supplier that was ready willing and able to supply hydroxychloroquine tablets needed to move quickly to secure this supply. Failure to do this would have resulted in the hydroxychloroquine tablets being sold by the supplier to another country due to the high demand globally. As such and at this time, the timelines for the open procedure, restricted procedure (even where accelerated) and the competitive procedure with negotiation could not be complied with in order for DHSC is to secure this supply of hydroxychloroquine tablets.
