Under the Digital Education Action Plan (2021-2027), which outlines the European Commission's vision for high-quality, inclusive and accessible digital education in Europe, and under Action 13 "Encourage women's participation in STEM" (science, technology, engineering, and mathematics), the European Commission expects the EIT and the KICs to equip 40,000 girls aged 14-19 with digital skills by the end of 2024 through a learning programme that engages girls in an EIT-branded digital learning platform.

The Girls Go Circular Project (www.eit-girls-gocircular.eu) will achieve this ambition and involve secondary school students in selected countries that will participate in a 1-day training on digital skills and the circular economy.

As the coordinating KIC of the Girls Go Circular Project, EIT RawMaterials is seeking a professional organisation or project consortium to render the following services:

- engage secondary schools from all the countries,
- train teachers and facilitators to guide girls through the online courses,
- support schoolteachers in delivering the learning programme,
- recruit teachers and students.

Section IV: Procedure

IV.1. Description

IV.1.1.

Type of procedure

Open procedure Accelerated procedure Justification:

Girls Go Circular is an EU-funded project that has been running since 2020. It was only in December 2022 that it was signalled that the project would be continued on a significantly expanded scale in 2023, 2024 and 2025, with corresponding funding. To enable the project to continue with the least possible interruptions, it is necessary to limit the duration for the tender procedure for the necessary services to further implement and expand the project. Nevertheless, interested companies should be given sufficient time to prepare and submit tenders.

Section VI: Complementary information

VI.3. Additional information

The contract value indicated under II.1.7) and V.2.4) is incorrect and is based solely on the fact that the form requires one entry in each case. Pursuant to Section 39 (6) Nos. 2 to 4 VgV, the contracting authority is not obliged to publish individual details if their publication would be contrary to the public interest, prejudicial to the legitimate commercial interests of an enterprise or prejudicial to fair competition between undertakings. The total value of the procurement and the value of the contracts awarded are not communicated because this would harm the legitimate commercial interests of the respective contractor. In addition, publication of the procurement or contract value would be contrary to the public interest and impair fair competition between companies in future award procedures, as conclusions about the contents of tenders and competition would be possible from such information.
