II.1.4. Short description of the contract or purchase(s)

This ITT relates to the procurement project advertised by South Hunsley School and Sixth Form College the (Customer Organisation)

The Customer Organisation is wishing to appoint a minimum of 3 suppliers (Contractors) per lot area to a National framework agreement for Furniture Supply and Installation to service the needs of all Public Sector Bodies, including but not limited to; school governing bodies; voluntary aided schools; voluntary controlled schools; Diocesan and other relevant faith authorities; academies and academy trusts, free schools and UTCs; foundation Schools; trust Schools, City technology colleges, further education colleges and sixth form colleges (and any statutory successors and organisations created as a result of re-organisation or organisational change).

The Framework Agreement will be available to all public sector Contracting Authorities in general as defined at Part 1, paragraph 3 of the Public Contracts Regulations 2006, but also recognising the specialist requirements of the Education market segment, including Academy Schools, Colleges and Universities (Client Organisations). The main aim of the framework is to introduce competition in to the market alongside existing consortia framework providers. The framework will allow Client Organisations to and appoint a Contractor through further competitions for large projects and to call off 'one off' items through an ecommerce platform. The framework will be contract managed by staff with specialist market knowledge from Added Value Portal to ensure continual best value is achieved.
