In 2016, it is expected that a new bilateral programme will be launched regarding the development cooperation between Denmark and Burkina Faso — the Danish Country Programme for Burkina Faso 2016-2020. As a part of this programme, the Danish embassy in Burkina Faso wants to recruit a technical assistance package within the areas of justice, human right and the security sector.

The technical assistance will assist the implementation of 2 programme components.

Programme Component 1 in the area of justice and human rights and Programme Component 2 related to the security sector. The Programme Components are formulated according to national policies and plans and will be implemented by the ministries themselves using national procedures. The total duration of the Programme is approximately 57 months. Specifically, the 2 Programme Components will benefit from a joint technical assistance package within the following areas:

Regarding justice and human rights:

- Internal judicial control mechanisms, including procedures for inspections of courts, prisons and tribunals;
- Other support related to planning and human rights.

Regarding the security sector:

- Community participation in policing, including community policing, local policing committees and local security plans;
- Planning, quality assurance, monitoring and evaluation, including indicator development, procedures for monitoring and information collections.

Shared between justice, human rights and the security sector:

- Financial and operational management particularly related to the application of relevant UEMOA directives;
- Human rights issues related to justice and security, specifically Universal Periodic Review, human rights in the security sectors, human rights and the independence of the judiciary In total, the following TA is expected to be delivered;
- Long term, with international experience: 51 months;
- Short term, with international experience: 39 months;
- Long term, national or regional experience: 102 months.

General and specific experiences desired for the technical assistance:

- Experience in providing support to and capacity building of francophone West African governments;
- Track record of successful implementation of programmes or projects at the value of approximately 5 000 000 DKK during the last 3 years;
- Strong French competencies from implementing and support staff;
- Experience with Danida procedures;
- Experience in working with human rights, particularly supporting the implementation of recommendations from the Universal Periodic Review;
- Experience in working with internal control and accountability in the justice sector;
- Experience in working with the security sector, particularly related to human rights.

VI.2. Additional information

Tender procedures are subject to the law of Denmark and the rules applicable hereunder. Any legal entity may only submit 1 application.

The applications shall be submitted using the standard application form available under 'Contract Documents' on www.danidacontracts.um.dk Please download current version. Applications not using the standard application form will not be accepted.

The Candidate as International Juridical Expert and the candidate as expert on Community Participation in Policing will be invited for interviews. Failure to comply with this will lead to disqualification of the Tenderer.

A Candidate may, where appropriate and for a particular contract, rely on the capacities of other entities (to meet possible minimum requirements concerning economic and financial standing, and technical and/or professional ability as specified in the Contract Notice), regardless of the legal nature of the links, which it has with them. It must in that case prove to the Contracting Authority that it will have at its disposal the resources necessary, for example, by producing an undertaking by those entities to that effect. Such entities, for instance the parent company of the candidate, must respect the same rules of eligibility, and must comply with the conditions as stated in the contract notice.

The Ministry reserves the right — but is not obliged — to use the remedies provided for in Section 12 of the Danish statutory order on procedures for the award of public supply contracts, public service contracts and public construction contracts (Order no 712 and 15.6.2011), if applications or tenders do not fulfil the formalities of the tender documents. The Client opposes exclusive agreements with local sub-consultants, be they organizations or individuals.

The award of contract is subject to the final approval and financing of the programme by relevant authorities. This includes the Danish Government, the Danish Parliament and the Government of Burkina Faso.
