The Danish Embassy has for years accompanied the civil society in Burkina Faso in the promotion and protection of human rights. Civil society organisations (CSO) are supported through a civil society organisation fund.
The Embassy is currently seeking a Fund Manager to coordinate this support, which amounts to 92 000 000 DKK. The Fund Manager will be responsible for the administrative and financial management of the funds, the monitoring and evaluation and capacity building to ensure the sustainability of the achievements of civil society organisations. The administrative guidelines for the management of the fund will be determined jointly with the Fund manager, based on the Danish Ministry of Foreign Ministry's standard cooperation agreement.

Specifically, the Fund Manager shall:
1. Ensure the overall management of funds, including quality assurance CSOs reporting, and monitoring and evaluation of the CSOs in order to measure the achievement of results.
2. Identify needs for capacity building in relevant areas and to ensure the sustainability of their activities.
3. Ensure the capitalisation of CSO experiences in human rights, citizen engagement and prevention of the rise of radicalism.
The staff provided by the Fund Manager will be mobilised May 2016 and cover a period of 55 months. It will include 260 man months of both long term and short term and international and national technical assistance.
The areas to be covered include management, capacity building of CSO, human rights, justice, corruption, water and sanitation, etc.
The Fund Manager shall have proven experience from administrating similar funds and financing civil society organisations; from capacity building of civil society organisations; from monitoring and evaluation of similar projects; and have strong skills in reporting and in capitalising results.

Tender procedures are subject to the law of Denmark and the rules applicable hereunder.
Any legal entity may only submit 1 application.
The applications shall be submitted using the standard application form available under 'Contract Documents' on www.danidacontracts.um.dk Please download current version.
Applications not using the standard application form will not be accepted.
The Candidate as International Juridical Expert and the candidate as expert on Community Participation in Policing will be invited for interviews. Failure to comply with this will lead to disqualification of the Tenderer.
A Candidate may, where appropriate and for a particular contract, rely on the capacities of other entities (to meet possible minimum requirements concerning economic and financial standing, and technical and/or professional ability as specified in the Contract Notice), regardless of the legal nature of the links, which it has with them. It must in that case prove to the Contracting Authority that it will have at its disposal the resources necessary, for example, by producing an undertaking by those entities to that effect. Such entities, for instance the parent company of the candidate, must respect the same rules of eligibility, and must comply with the conditions as stated in the contract notice; The Ministry reserves the right — but is not obliged — to use the remedies provided for in Section 12 of the Danish statutory order on procedures for the award of public supply contracts, public service contracts and public construction contracts (Order No 712 and 15 June, 2011), if applications or tenders do not fulfil the formalities of the tender documents. The Client opposes exclusive agreements with local sub- consultants, be they organizations or individuals; The award of contract is subject to the final approval and financing of the programme by relevant authorities.
