II.1.4. Short description

The Norwegian Government Agency for Financial Management (DFØ) is the government's expert body on finance and entity management in the government. DFØ is an advisor for central authorities within government financial management and it carries out administration assignments for all government entities.

As a part of DFØ's management of reporting instructions, DFØ offers competence raising measures on how entities shall comply with the review instructions. In order to strengthen the reporting competence in government management, DFØ shall now offer an e-learning programme on review instructions and socio-economic analyses.

DFØ has held an open tender contest for the delivery of an e-learning programme on review instructions and socio-economic analyses. The government entities that shall implement new measures shall review the measure in advance, in accordance with the review instructions. The procurement concerns the development and completion of the e-learning programme, including the development of the educational content.
