Precise information on deadline(s) for review procedures: Deadline for proceedings to acknowledge an ineffective contract, shorten contract or impose violation penalties is set out in PPRFOA § 22A-3. Note that the deadline for claims about sanctions for illegal direct procurements is reduced from two years to 30 days if the Contracting Authority announces the contest results in accordance with PPR § 18-4, c.f. § 22A-3 no. 2.

For applications with claims for compensation, the Limitations deadlines apply according to the Limitation Act.

Interim court order may be decided upon, until the contract is entered into, c.f. the Public Procurement Act § 9. If the Contracting Authority has set a fixed waiting period, a request for interim court order can be submitted before the expiry of the waiting period so that it can have automatic suspensive effect, cf. PPR § 22-3a no. 1. The contracting authority may, in certain cases, set a deadline for when the request for interim court order shall be submitted. This applies for the contracting authority's decision to reject or cancel a request for participation in a tender contest with pre-qualification. C.f. PPR § 19-7 and the ministry's instruction, point 11.4. Deadlines for lodging appeals to KOFA (the Norwegian Complaints Board for Public Procurement) are in accordance with the regulations regarding the appeals board for public procurements. C.f. particularly § 6 and § 13a. Note that the deadline is 2 years for claims about direct procurement. If the application deadline has expired due the the Contracting Authority announcing the contest result in accordance with PPR 18-4, the tenderer can ask KOFA for an advisory statement about whether there is an illegal direct procurement.
