Title: Request for Tenders for the provision of an Online Apparel Shop for Technological University Dublin

Description: Technological University Dublin is seeking to appoint a supplier through a tender process to develop and manage an online sports apparel shop for the university community. The proposed platform will enable students to purchase TU Dublin sportswear and branded apparel directly through a dedicated online store, providing convenient access to official merchandise across a range of sports and activities. The successful supplier will be responsible not only for the supply and fulfilment of products, but also for the operation and management of the online shop, including digital marketing and promotional activity to drive awareness and engagement among students. This initiative aims to enhance the visibility of TU Dublin sport, strengthen the university's sporting identity, and provide students with an easy and reliable way to purchase official sports apparel online.
