2.1. Procedure

Title: Request for information - Uniform and occupational footwear

Description: Norwegian Police Shared Services (Norwegian abbreviation PFT) is issuing this Request for Information (RFI) on behalf of the National Police Directorate and the Ministry of Justice and Public Security. PFT is responsible for strategic procurement within the police sector, aiming to provide suitable products and services to the Norwegian Police, the Norwegian Correctional Service, and Norwegian Customs. Norwegian Defence Materiel Agency (FMA), the Norwegian Directorate for Civil Protection (DSB) and the Norwegian Public Roads Administration (SVV) are also considering participation in this process. Consequently, this RFI includes perspectives and requirements to the diverse operational needs of these entities. PFT plans to announce a procurement of Uniform and occupational footwear in the third quarter of 2026 (Q3 2026). Prior to this, PFT is carrying out a RFI to get an overview of potential tenderers and how the market can cover the agencies' needs. The information received will be used as a basis for the further work with planning and implementation of the procurement. The RFI will be carried out as an early market dialogue. It is voluntary to respond, and participation in the RFI does not give advantage in a later competition.
