VI.2. Additional information*VI.3. Procedures for review*VI.3.1. Review body

Official name: See VI.3.2) below

VI.3.2. Review procedure

Precise information on deadline(s) for review procedures: The contracting authority will incorporate a minimum 10-calendar day standstill period at the point information on the award of the contract is communicated to tenderers. This period allows unsuccessful tenderers to seek further debriefing from the contracting authority before the contract is entered into. Such additional information should be requested from the address in section I.1). If an appeal regarding the award of a contract has not been successfully resolved the Public Contracts Regulations 2006 (SI 2006 No 5) provide for the aggrieved parties who have been harmed or are at risk of harm by a breach of rules to take action in the High Court (England, Wales and Northern Ireland). Any such action must be brought promptly (generally within 3 months or in the case of an ineffectiveness claim within 30 days subject to notification of the conclusion of the contract). Where a contract has not been entered into the contracting authority is obliged to suspend the contract-making and the Court may order the setting aside of the award decision or order the contracting authority to amend any document and may award damages. If the contract has been entered into the Court may award damages and order the ineffectiveness of the contract or alternative subject to the time limits mentioned above.
