2.1.4. General information

Additional information: Economic operators are encouraged to seek clarification of any uncertainties and ambiguities by asking questions about the Tender Material. Furthermore, it should be noted that this tender is conducted as a 'Negotiated procedure with prior call for competition', and that adjustments to the Tender Material may occur as part of potential negotiations. As part of the application, economic operators must ensure that a duly completed version of the European Single Procurement Document (ESPD) is submitted. The ESPD is the economic operator's 'self-declaration' serving as preliminary evidence that the economic operator is not subject to the mandatory and, if selected, voluntary grounds for exclusion and meets the requirements for suitability. According to Executive Order no. 1078 of 29/06/2022, § 11, economic operators for the current tender must not be subject to the mandatory exclusion grounds specified in sections 134a, 135, and 136 of the Public Procurement Act. Furthermore, economic operators for the current tender must not be subject to the exclusion grounds listed in section 137, paragraph 1, no. 2. Economic operators covered by the included exclusion grounds in sections 135-137 may only participate in the tender if documentation of reliability is presented, cf. section 138 of the Public Procurement Act. The contracting authority will request a "Serviceattest" (<https://erhvervsstyrelsen.dk/serviceattest-ved-udbud>) as documentation that economic operators are not subject to the exclusion grounds specified in section 135, paragraph 1, 2, and 3 (and if selected, section 137, paragraph 1, no. 2) of the Public Procurement Act. If the economic operator originates from another Member State, they must provide equivalent documentation in the version and/or from the authorities relevant in that Member State. The contracting authority reserves the right at any time during the procurement procedure to request an applicant or tenderer to submit documentation if necessary to ensure that the procedure is carried out correctly. The EU sanctions against Russia entail that economic operators subject to EU sanctions under EU Regulation no. 833/2014 as amended, article 5k, are excluded from participating in the tender. By submitting an application, the applicant confirms not to be subject to this. Conditions for participation in the form of consortia or through the use of supporting entities are described in the Tender Material. The contracting authority reserves the right to complement, supplement, or complete applications and tenders. Site visit at Havnegade 120, 5000 Odense; In connection with the tender procedure, an inspection of the site of installation will be made available at Havnegade 120, 5000 Odense in week 17-18 prior to the submission of application. The inspection constitutes a voluntary opportunity for tenderers to familiarize themselves with the site prior to the submission of tenders. No additional information will be provided on the day, other than a brief introduction by the Contracting Authority and a guided tour. Any specific questions must subsequently be submitted in writing via Comdia, and responses will be published in the Q&A section of Comdia. Prior registration is mandatory and must be submitted to Thomas Havers at th@fjernvarmefyn.dk and/or Laura Meyer Hansen at lmh@fjernvarmefyn.dk.

Documentation: The contracting entity shall be entitled to obtain appropriate evidence as to whether the candidate or tenderer is in a situation which may give rise to exclusion pursuant to this ground for exclusion.

Bankruptcy: A candidate or tenderer will be excluded from participation in the tendering procedure if the candidate or tenderer has been declared bankrupt or is undergoing insolvency or winding-up proceedings, if its assets are managed by a liquidator or by the court if the latter is in composition, if his business activities have been suspended or if he is in a similar situation under a similar procedure; provided for in national law where the candidate or tenderer is established. Documentation: in accordance with sections 152-153 of the Danish Public Procurement Act.

Insolvency: A candidate or tenderer will be excluded from participation in the tendering procedure if the candidate or tenderer has been declared bankrupt or is undergoing insolvency or winding-up proceedings, if its assets are managed by a liquidator or by the court if the latter is in composition, if his business activities have been suspended or if he is in a similar situation under a similar procedure; provided for in national law where the candidate or tenderer is established. Documentation: in accordance with sections 152-153 of the Danish Public Procurement Act.

Arrangement with creditors: A candidate or tenderer will be excluded from participation in the tendering procedure if the candidate or tenderer has been declared bankrupt or is undergoing insolvency or winding-up proceedings, if its assets are managed by a liquidator or by the court if the latter is in composition, if his business activities have been suspended or if he is in a similar situation under a similar procedure; provided for in national law where the candidate or tenderer is established. Documentation: in accordance with sections 152-153 of the Danish Public Procurement Act.

Analogous situation like bankruptcy, insolvency or arrangement with creditors under national law: A candidate or tenderer will be excluded from participation in the tendering procedure if the candidate or tenderer has been declared bankrupt or is undergoing insolvency or winding-up proceedings, if its assets are managed by a liquidator or by the court if the latter is in composition, if his business activities have been suspended or if he is in a similar situation under a similar procedure; provided for in national law where the candidate or tenderer is established. Documentation: in accordance with sections 152-153 of the Danish Public Procurement Act.

Assets being administered by liquidator: A candidate or tenderer will be excluded from participation in the tendering procedure if the candidate or tenderer has been declared bankrupt or is undergoing insolvency or winding-up proceedings, if its assets are managed by a liquidator or by the court if the latter is in composition, if his business activities have been suspended or if he is in a similar situation under a similar procedure; provided for in national law where the candidate or tenderer is established. Documentation: in accordance with sections 152-153 of the Danish Public Procurement Act.

Business activities are suspended: A candidate or tenderer will be excluded from participation in the tendering procedure if the candidate or tenderer has been declared bankrupt or is undergoing insolvency or winding-up proceedings, if its assets are managed by a liquidator or by the court if the latter is in composition, if his business activities have been suspended or if he is in a similar situation under a similar procedure; provided for in national law where the candidate or tenderer is established. Documentation: in accordance with sections 152-153 of the Danish Public Procurement Act.

Grave professional misconduct: A contracting entity shall exclude a candidate or tenderer from participation in a procurement procedure where the contracting entity can demonstrate that the candidate or tenderer has been guilty of grave professional misconduct casting doubt on the integrity of the candidate or tenderer. Documentation: The contracting entity shall be entitled to obtain appropriate evidence as to whether the candidate or tenderer is in a situation which may give rise to exclusion pursuant to this ground for exclusion.

Agreements with other economic operators aimed at distorting competition: A candidate or tenderer will be excluded from participation in the procurement procedure if the contracting entity has sufficient plausible indications to conclude that the candidate or tenderer has concluded an agreement with other economic operators with a view to distorting competition. Documentation: The contracting entity shall be entitled to obtain appropriate evidence as to whether the candidate or tenderer is in a situation which may give rise to exclusion pursuant to this ground for exclusion.

Conflict of interest due to its participation in the procurement procedure: A contracting entity must exclude a candidate or a tenderer from participation in a procurement procedure when the contracting entity can demonstrate that a conflict of interest, cf. section 24(18) of the Danish Public Procurement Act, cannot be effectively remedied by less restrictive measures in relation to the procurement procedure in question. Documentation: The contracting entity shall be entitled to obtain appropriate evidence as to whether the candidate or tenderer is in a situation which may give rise to exclusion pursuant to this ground for exclusion.

Direct or indirect involvement in the preparation of this procurement procedure: A contracting entity must exclude a candidate or tenderer from participation in a procurement procedure where the contracting entity can demonstrate that a distortion of competition within the meaning of Section 39 of the Public Procurement Act resulting from the prior involvement of economic operators in the preparation of the procurement procedure in relation to the procurement procedure in question cannot be remedied by less restrictive measures. Documentation: The contracting entity shall be entitled to obtain appropriate evidence as to whether the candidate or tenderer is in a situation which may give rise to exclusion pursuant to this ground for exclusion.

Misrepresentation, withheld information, unable to provide required documents or obtained confidential information of this procedure: A contracting entity shall exclude a candidate or tenderer from participation in a procurement procedure where the contracting entity can demonstrate that the candidate or tenderer has supplied grossly incorrect information, has withheld information or is unable to submit additional documents concerning the grounds for exclusion referred to in Section 135(1) or (3) of the Public Procurement Act and, where applicable, In section 137(1), no. 2 or 6 of the Public Procurement Act, the minimum requirements for suitability laid down in sections 140-144 of the Public Procurement Act or the selection in section 145. Documentation: The contracting entity shall be entitled to obtain appropriate evidence as to whether the candidate or tenderer is in a situation which may give rise to exclusion pursuant to this ground for exclusion.

Purely national exclusion grounds: Section 134a of the Danish Public Procurement Act applies, which is why a contracting entity must exclude a candidate or tenderer from participation in a procurement procedure if the candidate or tenderer is established in a country that is included on the EU list of non-cooperative tax jurisdictions and has not acceded to the WTO's Government Procurement Agreement or other trade agreements obliging Denmark to open the market for public contracts to tenderers established in that country. Section 134a (2) of the Public Procurement Act: Section 135(6) applies mutatis mutandis to situations covered by subsection (1). Documentation: The contracting entity shall be entitled to obtain appropriate evidence as to whether the candidate or tenderer is in a situation which may give rise to exclusion pursuant to this ground for exclusion.

Terrorist offences or offences linked to terrorist activities: A contracting entity shall exclude a candidate or tenderer from participation in a procurement procedure where the candidate or tenderer has been convicted or has adopted a fine by final judgment for terrorist offences or offences related to terrorist activities as defined respectively in Articles 1, 3 and 4 of Council Framework Decision 2002/475/JHA of 13 June 2002 on combating terrorism (Official Journal 2002, No L 164, page 3) as amended by Council Framework Decision 2008/919/JHA of 28 November 2008 amending Framework Decision 2002/475/JHA on combating terrorism (Official Journal 2008, No L 330, page 21). Documentation: in accordance with sections 152-153 of the Danish Public Procurement Act

Breaching obligation relating to payment of social security contributions: The contracting entity shall exclude a candidate or tenderer who has unpaid overdue debts of DKK 100,000 or more to public authorities relating to taxes, duties or social security contributions under Danish law or the law of the country in which the applicant or tenderer is established. Documentation: in accordance with sections 152-153 of the Danish Public Procurement Act.

5.1.9. Selection criteria

Sources of selection criteria: Notice

Criterion: Other economic or financial requirements

Description of selection criterion: The applicant must provide their equity (total equity incl. share capital, reserves, revaluation, retained earning etc.) in accordance with the accounting practices applicable to the applicant from the most recent available annual report in ESPD part IV.B, 'Financial ratio'. The most recent available annual report refers to the report available at the time of the application deadline. The applicant's equity must be positive. If the applicant relies on the capacity of one or more entities (e.g., a parent company, sister company, or subcontractor) or is a group of economic operators (e.g., a consortium), information regarding ESPD part IV.B must also be provided in a separate ESPD for each of these entities, cf. section VI.3 'Additional information'. It is the applicant's responsibility to ensure that the minimum requirement concerning equity is met collectively through consolidation when the application is based on the capacity of other entities or if the applicant is a group of economic operators (e.g., a consortium). As documentation, the contracting authority will request the most recent available annual report(s).

Criterion: References on specified deliveries

Description of selection criterion: The applicant must, in ESPD Part IV.C: performance of deliveries of the specified type or in the document Spread sheet for references provide up to 3 references which all meet the following requirements: the deliveries must have been completed within the past 5 years counted from the application deadline, and the references must include delivery of at least, or comparable to, an automatic operated filter press as described in the tendered scope of supply. The applicant should ensure that the following information is provided for all references: a) Recipient of the delivery (including contact information), and b) Detailed description of the delivery content, and c) Delivery period (start and completion of the delivery, specifying exact dates). If the applicant relies on the capacities of other entities, the references for these must be provided in the supporting entity's ESPD or in a separate version of the document Spread sheet for references. A group of economic operators (e.g., a consortium) must meet the requirement jointly. The contracting authority does not expect to request additional documentation for the references but reserves the right to use the contact information provided to verify the submitted information.

The criteria will be used to select the candidates to be invited for the second stage of the procedure

Information about the second stage of a two-stage procedure:

Review organisation: Danish Complaints Board for Public Procurement

Information about review deadlines: According to the Danish Complaints Board for Public Procurement Act etc. (the Act can be downloaded at www.retsinformation.dk), the following deadlines for filing a complaint apply: Complaints about not having been selected must be submitted to the Danish Complaints Board for Public Procurement within 20 calendar days, cf. Section 7(1) of the Act, from the day after sending a notification to the candidates concerned about who has been selected, when the notification is accompanied by a statement of reasons for the decision in accordance with Section 2(1)(1) of the Act and Section 171(2) of the Public Procurement Act. In other situations, complaints about tenders, cf. Section 7(2) of the Act, must be submitted to the Complaints Board for Public Procurement within: 1) 45 calendar days after the contracting entity has published a notice in the Official Journal of the European Union that it has entered into a contract. The deadline is calculated from the day after the date on which the announcement has been published. 2) 20 calendar days from the day after the contracting entity has announced its decision, cf. Section 185(2) of the Public Procurement Act. No later than the same time that a complaint is submitted to the Complaints Board for Public Procurement, the complainant must inform the contracting entity in writing that a complaint is submitted to the Complaints Board for Public Procurement and whether the complaint has been submitted during the standstill period, cf. Section 6(4) of the Act. In cases where the complaint has not been submitted during the standstill period, the complainant must also state whether the complaint is to be given suspensive effect, cf. Section 12(1) of the Act. The Complaints Board for Public Procurement's e-mail address is stated in Section VI.4.1).
