2.1. Procedure

Title: Transport of personnel by vessel Fønnes - Sløvåg

Description: The Norwegian Coastal Administration needs boat transport of pilots between Fønnes and Sløvåg quay. The objective of the procurement is to ensure a regular and reliable transport service that supports the pilot service's operative need. The service is an important part of maintaining high security and efficiency in sea transport along the coast. A stable and predictable losskys is decisive for ensuring the pilot service's continuity and presence. This contributes to reducing the risk of accidents and environmental damage at sea, and is, thus, a central part of the Norwegian Coastal Administration's social mission. Regularity and reliability in the transport between Fønnes and Sløvåg strengthen the predictability of sea transport, which is particularly important for the logistics of business and society's transport needs.

Procedure identifier: a10da0f4-4ac7-43f9-9e12-c732af00299b

Internal identifier: 2026/1381

Type of procedure: Open

The procedure is accelerated: no

Main features of the procedure: The procurement is for 24 hour transport services for pilot and possibly other personnel year round between Fønnes and Sløvåg quay, as well as to and from Skipavik/Haugsnestangen. The service shall ensure an efficient and reliable transport in accordance with the pilot service's operative needs. There will be additional transport as needed, including transport of pilot to vessel at anchor or to vessels that operate on dynamic positioning (DP). Tenderers must therefore be flexible and be able to adapt the service according to operative changes and various assignments.
