Economic operators must inform CRL that they are interested in the contract by complying with the requirements of the pre-qualification questionnaire available to parties registering to the Crossrail eSourcing Portal, as above. CRL will use the information provided to select economic operators to be invited to tender for the contract. A response to this notice does not guarantee that an economic operator will be invited to tender. The award process may be terminated or suspended at any time without cost or liability to CRL. CRL does not bind itself to enter into any contract arising out of the procedures envisaged by this notice. No contractual rights express or implied arise out of this notice or the procedures envisaged by it. Any contract let by CRL may contain provision that the contract may be extended at CRL's discretion. CRL reserves the right to vary its requirements and the procedure relating to the conduct of the award process. CRL reserves the right to disqualify any economic operator who provides information or confirmations which later prove to be untrue or incorrect; does not supply the information required by this notice or by the pre-qualification questionnaire and information pack, or as otherwise required by CRL during the award process; or fulfils any one or more of the criteria detailed in Regulation 26 of the UK Utilities Contracts Regulations 2006 (as amended).

CRL reserves the right to require the submission of any additional, supplementary or clarification information as it may, in its absolute discretion, consider appropriate.

CRL embraces diversity and welcomes applications from all suitably skilled suppliers of all sizes who can meet the requirements, regardless of gender, ethnicity, sexual orientation, faith, disability or age of supplier workforce and/or ownership. CRL will actively promote green procurement throughout its supply chain and welcomes applications from suppliers committed to the principles of reducing, reusing and recycling resources and to the practices of buying recycled. CRL strongly supports and implements the Greater London Authority (GLA) Responsible Procurement Policy, details of which may be found at: <http://www.london.gov.uk/rp/policy/>.

Further details as to the application of Responsible Procurement to this procurement may be set out in the pre-qualification and tender documents.

Economic operators selected to tender for the contract may submit offers which contain variants on the requirements specified in the contract documents. The minimum requirements to be met by the variants, and any specific requirements for the presentation of an offer which contains variants, will be set out in the specifications which will be part of the contract documents issued at tender stage.
