II.2. Description

II.2.1. Title

Independent at home

Lot No: 1

II.2.2. Additional CPV code(s)

85000000 Health and social work services, 98000000 Other community, social and personal services

II.2.3. Place of performance

NUTS code: UK United Kingdom

II.2.4. Description of the procurement

Support should focus on people's strengths and existing networks so that they can live as independently as possible. Commissioners understand that families also have a lot of expertise and knowledge so offering support to strengthen their abilities to care for family members is something that also contributes to choice if people want to remain in the family home. By having a menu of options available this will facilitate choice and control for individuals. We also want to promote providers offering innovative solutions that will tailor make support across lives not services.

Provision should be available to anyone aged 16+ (or all age).

Support could include Supported Living; Residential Homes; Nursing Homes; Respite; Domiciliary care; Emergency Accommodation; Specialist support at home; Shared Lives; Transitional services into adulthood.

II.2.4. Description of the procurement

Links should be offered to people with learning disabilities and/or autism that enable them to contribute to be a part of the local community, to make new friends and grow support networks beyond their existing relationships. Having people around us builds resilience and helps us to deal with life's challenges. Feedback has informed commissioners that support from people rather than a service is what makes a difference to an individual's life.

Provision should be available to anyone aged 16+ (or all age).

Support could include Day Support; Social clubs; Opportunity to develop friendships; Befriending services; Support to join universal services.
