This notice is being advertised via OJEU on a voluntary basis as this is a part b procurement. This innovative joint project between Bexley CCG (BCCG) and London Borough of Bexley (LBB) is to transform services for children and young people by commissioning a comprehensive range of services through one main integrated pathway tailored to early identification and intervention to prevent escalation of health, educational and social problems and the associated poor outcomes.

The prime contractor will be responsible for developing and providing a new integrated health and local authority service for children and young people including the following:

CCG commissioned services:

- In-patient paediatric services — elective and non-elective;
- Out-patient paediatric services — first, follow-up and procedures;
- Specialist children's community services;
- Child and adolescent mental health services;
- End of life care for children;
- Youth Offending Team Health service;

Local Authority commissioned services:

- Youth work projects;
- Diversionary and targeted youth programmes;
- Youth support services;
- Careers and Education Information, Advice and Guidance;
- Family and parenting support services, including for early years;
- Children's Centres and Outreach Service;
- Child and adolescent mental health services and emotional well-being;
- School nursing;
- Substance Misuse;
- Sexual health;
- Speech, language and communication services.

NHSE commissioned services : The intention is that these services will be included from September 2015. The Commissioners will negotiate with the Prime Contractor once the service transfer is finalised expected for March 2015 (all subject to technical guidance awaited from DH).

- Health Visiting,
- Health Visiting Growth,
- Family Nurse Partnership,

— Youth justice diversion and liaison (The intention is that this service will be included from April 2015, this will be subject to negotiation with prime contractor).

The contract will not include children or young people's (including paediatric) unscheduled care services (i.e. A&E, Out of Hours GP Services or Urgent Care Centres), or specialist paediatric services commissioned by NHSE England.

Bexley CCG and the London Borough of Bexley are looking to achieve a stretch savings target of 20 % against the budget shown in this advert.

This notice is being advertised via OJEU on a voluntary basis as this is a part b procurement. The CCG intends to adopt the 'prime contractor' model, a short list of providers will be arrived at and a negotiated procurement undertaken. The prime contractor model can also include a consortium arrangement where 1 organisation acts as a lead contractor on behalf of a number of providers in partnership.

The next stage in the process will be the pre-qualification questionnaire. The PQQ stage will run from 1.8. — 8.9. 2014.

There will be a bidder event day on Wednesday 20th August (this will be a full day event). To express your organisations interest to attend and receive further information please email: procurement@bexley.nhs.uk Spaces are limited to a maximum of 2 people per organisation and we would strongly advise that your Finance Director be in attendance.

To facilitate Prime contractors and subcontractors at the bidder event we are asking for a 200 word pen picture which details your organisation and the services offered that would compliment this procurement, a template for this can be found with the PQQ on the Delta e-sourcing web-page.

The Commissioner has adopted Delta-e-sourcing for all its tender activity. The tender process will be conducted entirely via self-service downloading of all documentation only (unless otherwise requested) through a secure Tender-box.

At this stage you will be required to register at <http://www.delta-esourcing.com/delta> If you are already registered you will not need to register again, simply use your existing user-name and password. Please note there is a password reminder link on the homepage.

VI.4. Procedures for review

VI.4.1. Review body

VI.4.2. Review procedure

Precise information on deadline(s) for review procedures: Economic operators are referred to the Public Contracts.

Regulations 2006 and in particular regulations 47D and 47E which are set out as follows: 47D General time limits for starting proceedings '(1) This regulation limits the time within which proceedings may be started where the proceedings do not seek a declaration of ineffectiveness. (2) Subject to paragraphs (3) and (4), such proceedings must be started promptly and in any event within 3 months beginning with the date when grounds for starting the proceedings first arose. (3) Paragraph (2) does not require proceedings to be started before the end of any of the following periods — (a) where the proceedings relate to a decision which is sent to the economic operator by facsimile or electronic means, 10 days beginning with — (i) the day after the date on which the decision is sent, if the decision is accompanied by a summary of the reasons for the decision; (ii) if the decision is not so accompanied, the day after the date on which the economic operator is informed of a summary of those reasons; (b) where the proceedings relate to a decision which is sent to the economic operator by other means, whichever of the following periods ends first — (i) 15 days beginning with — (aa) the day after the date on which the decision is sent, if the decision is accompanied by a summary of the reasons for the decision; or (bb) if the decision is not so accompanied, the day after the date on which the economic operator is informed of a summary of those reasons; (ii) 10 days beginning with — (aa) the day after the date on which the decision is received, if the decision is accompanied by a summary of the reasons for the decision; or (bb) if the decision is not so accompanied, the day after the date on which the economic operator is informed of a summary of those reasons; (c) where sub-paragraphs (a) and (b) do not apply but the decision is published, 10 days beginning with the day on which the decision is published. (4) The Court may extend the time limits imposed by this regulation (but not the limits imposed by regulation 47E) where the Court considers that there is a good reason for doing so. (5) For the purposes of this regulation, proceedings are to be regarded as started only when the claim form is served in compliance with regulation 47F(1). 47E Special time limits for seeking a declaration of ineffectiveness (1) This regulation limits the time within which proceedings may be started where the proceedings seek a declaration of ineffectiveness.

(2) Such proceedings must be started — (a) where paragraph (3) or (5) applies, within 30 days beginning with the relevant date mentioned in that paragraph; (b) in any other case, within 6 months beginning with the day after the date on which the contract was entered into. (3) This paragraph applies where a relevant contract award notice has been published in the Official Journal, in which case the relevant date is the day after the date on which the notice was published. (4) For that purpose, a contract award notice is relevant if, and only if — (a) the contract was awarded without prior publication of a contract notice; and (b) the contract award notice includes justification of the decision of the contracting authority to award the contract without prior publication of a contract notice. (5) This paragraph applies where the contracting authority has informed the economic operator of — (a) the conclusion of the contract; and (b) a summary of the relevant reasons, in which case the relevant date is the day after the date on which the economic operator was informed of the conclusion or, if later, was informed of a summary of the relevant reasons. (6) In paragraph (5), ‘the relevant reasons’ means the reasons which the economic operator would have been entitled to receive in response to a request under regulation 32(9). (7) In this regulation, ‘contract award notice’ means a notice in accordance with regulation 31(1). (8) For the purposes of this regulation, proceedings are to be regarded as started only when the claim form is served in compliance with regulation 47F (1).
