II.1.4. Short description

Birmingham Airport provides domestic UK, European and international flights. As the UK's third largest airport outside London, it has recently celebrated its most successful period, handling 12 900 000 passengers during the 2018 calendar year. The airport currently has 2 separate contracts for airfield security services and hold baggage screening services and wishes to procure these under a single procurement exercise with the option of appointing a single provider to deliver both activities should there benefit in doing so.

Both activities are subject to heavy regulatory oversight and compliance is core to the delivery of the services. The Airport is seeking to appoint a provider (or 2 separate providers should both services remain as standalone activities) who work with the Airport to deliver increased transparency of service standards, compliance, management information and cost information through innovation.

Lot 1: Airfield Security Services;

Lot 2: Hold Baggage Screening.
