II.2. Scope of the procurement

II.2.1. Total quantity or scope

The objective of the procurement is to ensure reliable operation of the existing telephone exchanges and IP telephone servers in Oslo municipality. There are 70 — 90 telephony systems in use, and by the end of 2015 they had approx 10 000 subscribers. The number of systems and subscribers is decreasing each year, and a continuous reduction of systems and subscribers is expected during the agreement period. The reason for this is that activities requiring alterations are often replaced with different telephony systems or subscription services where a large part will include mobile telephony service with private automatic branch exchange functions.
