III.1.3. Technical and professional ability

List and brief description of selection criteria:

Companies and/or Groupings and/or Networks specialized in the production of manufactured goods for which they ask to compete are allowed to participate. To this end, each competitor must declare/demonstrate possession of the following minimum requirements:

(a) essential processing steps that every participating economic operator must have (excluding the net, chair and gun case and accessories such as screws, handles and guides):

- cutting and assembly of furniture component parts,
- assembly of the furniture components of the series,
- painting,
- packaging,
- assembly at destination;

(b) overall business organization which can be inferred from:

- descriptive list of the technical equipment possessed pertaining to the manufactured goods for which the company competes,
- production facilities and workforce,
- daily production capacity referred to finished products similar to those of the contract in line with the terms of preparation of the supply;

(c) quality certification attesting compliance with the UNI EN ISO 9001-2015 standards, issued by Accredia accredited body or other institution in mutual recognition, related to the accreditation sector (EA) and verified and certified processes (indicated in the 'scope' or 'field of application') concerning the processing phase(s) carried out by the economic operator for the type(s) of furniture for which he requests to participate;

(d) specific turnover: list of supplies, made in the 2016-18 3-year period, related to similar finished products (for raw materials used, construction techniques, machinery and equipment used, proportion ratio, similarity, and intended use) to those for which asks to participate, whose annual average (excluding VAT) must be at least equal to the value of the tender (excluding VAT). The list must contain the detailed indication of the type of products, amounts invoiced, contract dates and beneficiaries.

The Administration reserves the right to arrange technical inspections at the offices, even secondary, of the competitors, to verify its technical capacity. The relative costs are borne by the competitor.
