The Authority is committed to equality and diversity in its service provision and will ensure compliance with all legislation covering anti-discrimination and assess suppliers' and service providers' commitment to these aims and values. The Race Relations Act 1976, as amended by the Race Relations (Amendment) Act 2000, places a statutory duty on local authorities to promote race equality.

This means that local authorities in carrying out their various functions must 'have due regard to the need to eliminate unlawful racial discrimination and to promote equality of opportunity and good relations between persons of different racial groups'. Economic Operators will be asked to provide copies of policies they have in place to demonstrate their commitment to equal opportunities in respect of sex, age, race, disability, sexual orientation, religion and belief. Economic Operators will also be expected to evidence and demonstrate how they will apply, promote, manage and monitor compliance with their policies whilst providing goods /works/services to the Authority. Economic operators will also be required to demonstrate how they check and monitor equal opportunities when using third parties/sub-contractors (if applicable). Suppliers should note there will be an ongoing engagement with other contracting bodies identified in section II.1.5 (short description) Potential suppliers should note that the Contracting Authority reserves the right to cancel this procurement at any stage and not to award a Framework Agreement. If the Contracting Authority decides to enter into a Framework Agreement with the successful supplier this does not mean that there is any guarantee of subsequent contracts being awarded. Any expenditure, work or effort undertaken prior to contract award is accordingly a matter solely for the commercial judgment of potential suppliers Any orders placed under this Framework Agreement will form a separate contract under the scope of this framework between the supplier and the specific requesting other contracting body. The Contracting Authority and other contracting bodies utilising the framework, reserve the right to use any electronic portal during the life of the agreement. This framework is also open to the Authorities listed below: Avon & Somerset Constabulary, Merseyside Police, British Transport Police, Metropolitan Police, Bedfordshire Police, Ministry of Defence Police, Cambridgeshire Constabulary, Norfolk Constabulary, North Wales Police, Cheshire Constabulary, North Yorkshire Police, City of London Police, Northamptonshire Police, Civil Nuclear Constabulary (formerly UKAEA).
